

Capability Statement

Core Competencies

Kadiri Health, LLC has established itself in the healthcare industry as an innovative, cutting edge company and dedicated to streamlining the supply chain to lower cost to our customers. We provide over 80,000 products to acute care hospitals, health systems, ambulatory care facilities, Integrated Delivery Networks, Group Purchasing Organizations, federal, state and regional governments. Kadiri Health, LLC is the master distributor of Helicoll, a bioengineered, skin substitute that is the recipient of the Vizient Innovative Technology Award. We seek out innovative technologies that are impactful in reducing medical errors and increasing patient satisfaction.

Our efficiencies are:

- Easy access to our products needed and in the quantities required
- Time saving and utilizing a single source supplier, lowering cost and elimination of a sales force
- Just-in-time delivery which reduces inventory cost
- Personalized service tailored to meet our customers' needs and flexibility to respond promptly
